

Copywriter

A.R.S. seeks a copywriter with creative energy for our print team. If you can write catchy point-of-purchase copy, as well as develop broad content for product launches, training materials and signage, we want to hear from you.

We're looking for a writer who understands the consumer-friendly voice, writes concisely and is detail-oriented. This person is organized, strong in project management and comfortable presenting to clients.

Three or more years of experience at an agency or marketing communications firm is desired. A bachelor's degree in advertising, marketing, communications, public relations, English or journalism is preferred.

We're a thriving, growing marketing agency whose clients are household names. They challenge us to provide top-notch creative solutions for point-of-purchase and sales training materials. We meet that challenge with creativity, strategic thinking and a team-oriented work ethic. We seek candidates who are passionate about the business and can thrive in a deadline-driven environment.

We offer a dynamic, fun and respectful atmosphere in a location that's convenient to I-90 (near the intersection of Barrington Road and Higgins Road). We provide medical, dental, vision, prescription drug and life insurance options, commensurate salary and business-casual dress. A 401k program with company match is offered after one year of employment.

Application requirements

Please send your cover letter, resume, samples or online links to your work, and salary requirements to opportunities@chicagoars.com and include "COPYWRITER" in the subject line. Candidates whose profiles most closely match our requirements will be contacted. No phone calls please.
